

Press Release

New Faststream business leader for Americas

Maritime recruitment specialist Faststream has appointed a new Vice President to manage its team of recruitment specialists in the USA.

Tamara Ellis, a former senior employee with Ranstad, the world's second largest staffing organisation, will be responsible for developing Faststream's growing presence in the Maritime, Oil & Gas and Logistics markets throughout the Americas.

Based in Fort Lauderdale, Ellis has both management and hands-on recruiting experience within US and global staffing organisations.

Faststream's Group CEO Mark Charman commented:

"Tamara is an outstanding catch for Faststream's US business. She has the drive and determination to grow Faststream throughout the Americas region, but more importantly the recruitment experience and understanding that is required to lead a highly professional staffing organisation."

Ellis added:

"This is an exciting opportunity to develop a well-established and respected business. The Faststream brand enjoys recognition for its professionalism and diligence, which are values that I respect, share and understand."

"I am looking forward to meeting the demands of our clients and candidates, and expanding the organisation into new market sectors."

ENDS

For further details please contact Bill Lines, Navigate PR. A hi res photograph is available on request.

T: 44 (0)20 7369 1653

E: @navigatepr.

Notes to editors

Faststream Recruitment Group is a specialist international recruiter operating within the maritime sector. Established in Southampton, UK in 1999 by Mark Charman, the business has enjoyed year-on-year growth and now operates from offices in The Americas and Asia and employs over 80 recruitment professionals. .faststream.co.